[5125N-1354E] :

Point #1. Screen Fence. Three meters high, with three strands of barbed wire on top. The fence extended along a RR track for two kilometers, then extended into the forest at both ends.

#2. Guard Shacks. Wood, 2 by 2 m., 2½ m. high, with tar paper covered shed type roofs, setting on wooden platforms 5 m. high. [redacted] Soviet guard with a machine gun in each one of the guard shacks. [redacted] one or two cables and four wires extending from guard shack to guard shack.

Guard shacks were 200 m. apart.

#3. Unidentified Area. [redacted] ground covered camouflaged cement bunkers with grass and bushes growing on them. The bunkers were mound shaped, three meters high tapering down to the level of the ground. The open entrance to the bunkers was 1½ m. high and 1 m. wide. There were wooden barracks in the area, camouflaged in color, with tar paper covered oval shaped roofs, in different sizes. [redacted] American Studebaker trucks and large Soviet tanks covered with branches for camouflage. Tanks and trucks were
